The annual gathering of conservatives from across the country is about to replace CNN/MSNBC as the number one cable news destination. "CNN's ratings have been declining for months now," said Dave Weigel, who moderated "The O'Reilly Factor" and "The Lead with Jake Tapper" at CPAC 2012. "It's been fairly obvious that the Fox News stable of hosts like Sean Hannity, Megyn Kelly, and Kimberly Guilfoyle have been stealing CNN's viewership." "The political debate as we know it is over," said Weigel, who is also author of "Feast or Famine: How Europe Went Hungry in the Face of Plenty." "Breitbart and Sean Hannity are doing more than Fox News is. They're doing better." "Fox News is conservative," said Weigel. "Breitbart is just conservative. Hannity is just conservative. And Fox is a powerful tool to be able to inform the masses. But if you only watch Fox, you don't know where the real conservative movement is going." CPAC 2016 1cb139a0ed
